

Open House Held For Mrs. Clyde On Birthday

Bertha Clyde's Open House on July 15 was a lovely affair. As she sat in a rose colored dress with an orchid corsage. Her family tree made by a family member and greenery were used as a background and flowers decorated the room. The serving tables in lace cloths and old fashioned bouquets on mirrors, on which tasty refreshments were served.

All Bertha's family were present, Willis and Lora Clyde, Venice Dillon and two granddaughters, Lisa and Terisa Goodwin of Long Beach, California; Faun Johnson, Salt Lake; Lynette Adams and children, Blanding, Utah; Donna and Fay Dillon and Rickey, Diann and Douglas Hunt and children of Ogden; Maxine and Keith Carlile and their families. Those to come from out-of-town were Lynn and Linda Carlile and Marc; Clyde Bonner, son, William, wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bonner, Ida B. Ringwood, Avis Bonner and husband, Frank and Velma Marble, Ray and Millie Lindsay, Lee and Leah Kay, all of Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Belnap, Ogden, with many local relatives and friends which made a happy time for Bertha. She says Thanks too you all for coming, cards sent and your good wishes.

All of Bertha Clyde's family members from out-of-town stayed at her home on Saturday night and Sunday where they enjoyed good food and a nice visit together.
